MH 17 MEMORIAL + PARK

The Trip
A domestic, non-stop international flight from Amsterdam travels over 7.5 hours at 33,000 feet at 14:30 AM and never reached the destination.

The Departure
The plane departed from the airport in Amsterdam at 14:30 on 17 July 2014.

The Passengers
Visitors walk through a series of narrow stone paths between the memorial forest, leading to an open space full of light where all the names of the dead are written on the timbers of the monoliths.

The Crush
The plane crashed into a forest on the island, killing everyone on board. The memorial is located on the site of the crash.

The Memorial
The site is a landmark dedicated to the memory of Flight MH17. It is a place that offers a variety of spaces for remembrance, contemplation, healing, and reflection. The memorial is a representation of the journey of those who lost their lives in the crash.

Key Plan
- A map showing the layout of the memorial site, including the locations of the memorial forest, the open space, and the names of the dead written on timbers.
